WRITING CAREER

Multiple short story sales to magazines and anthologies, starting in 1989. I have several for download at rpbird.com. A few of the others are in kindle format at Amazon.com. A partial list would include sales to the Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction, Aboriginal Magazine, Aberrations Magazine, the Future Tech Wars anthology, and Help magazine.

The novels Suzie's Technical Support, Causality, Contravallation and Essa published as ebooks at Amazon.com, 2013, 2014, multiple positive reviews, approximately 6,800 sales/downloads. The novel Rewire is a forthcoming title.

Multiple short stories released as ebooks at Amazon.com, including "Whimper," "A New Testament," "Psychic Hotline," "Home Sweet Home," "A Soft Head for Fine Cars," "Some Songs are Bitter," and "The Way to a Man's Heart." Multiple titles forthcoming.

Creator of the personal challenge site tellmewhattowrite.com. For a year, once every few weeks, I wrote a story based on an idea sent to me by a reader.

Staff writer, for American Times and Papa Advertising, c. 1988–1996. The clipbook of my work at American Times was eaten by the tornado (to read about the tornado, look at http://www.rpbird.com/downloads/How_It_Was.pdf). Speaking of tornadoes, an English yoga magazine published a version of How It Was. Tiny bits and pieces of my freelance work I had typed into the computer years ago, those are available in the downloads section of my web site.

Web content editor/writer for 10kc.com (a site for ad agency creatives, it's a dead link now), 1999 – 2000 (Internet Bubble).

Co-creator of espressostories.com.

Researcher for China: The Celestial Empire, c. 2001. It says 2003 on IMDB, but the work was done in 2000–early 2002 (My father died in August of that year, I think my work for CE had ended in April or May). You can visit my page at the Internet Movie Database, not much there, though. I'm too cheap to pay to have my CV and picture posted. I might do something with it in the future. (<http://www.imdb.com/name/nm2559968/>)

Script work with several writing partners, 1998 – 2002, 2010 – 2012. Supplied additional dialog, rewrites, and story consultation. Much of this was uncredited work as a "doctor." Also co-author of several screenplays as well as multiple screenplays under my own name.

Ghost writer, but my lips are sealed on where, for whom, and when. I have never written pornography. I have written political campaign materials, but that is all I am willing to say on the matter. 1996 – 1999.

Editorial assistance, especially for revisions to finished works. Like my ghost writing jobs, I keep quiet on who, what and where. As above, I have never associated myself with a project involving pornography. All else I am silent about. Someone has to keep the tradition of omertà alive. 1993, 1995 – 2000.

Wrote lyrics for several alternative rock bands and a performance artist, 1988 – 1993.
